

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

I wish remind the FCC that they work for ALL US citizens, not just the wealthy ones and I implore my public servants to protect what tiny amounts of democracy we have left.

By allowing such a huge monopoly on information control the FCC is demonstrating that is is merely a lap dog for those seeking complete economical/political control of the world. Looking at the FCC's performance over the last 30 years one can only lament the loss of vision, within this agency, for a democratic world.
